

on the 27th day of June, 1906, as bail for James J. Reynolds.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 30, 1908.

CHAPTER 145.

AN ACT to pay Kate B. Hudson, of Worcester county, Maryland, the sum of two hundred dollars per annum out of the fund provided by section 53A of chapter 584, Acts of 1904, providing for the pension of certain teachers of the public or normal schools of the State of Maryland.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the State Board of Education be and is hereby authorized and empowered to place upon the "teachers' retired list" the name of Kate B. Hudson, of Worcester county, Maryland, and to certify regularly to the Comptroller of the Treasury of this State the name of the said Kate B. Hudson, with the names of the other retired teachers of this State, and also shall receive and be paid a pension of two hundred dollars per annum, and be paid quarterly by the Treasurer of this State upon the warrant of the Comptroller as other teachers on said "retired list" are paid.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 30, 1908.

CHAPTER 155.

AN ACT to authorize and direct the Police Commissioners for the city of Baltimore to pay out of the "special fund" a pension to James R. Browne, formerly a policeman in the city of Baltimore, whose skull was fractured while he was in the discharge of his duty as a policeman.

Whereas James R. Browne, who served for fourteen years as policeman and detective on the force in the city of Baltimore, received a serious injury to his head by a billy in the hands of offenders while he was in the discharge of his duty as such officer; and

Whereas he was a contributor to the "special fund" and is now without means of support, and confined in Mount Hope as hopelessly incapacitated; and