

CHAPTER 225.

AN ACT to pay George Stallo a sum of money paid into the Treasury on forfeited recognizance in the case of the State of Maryland v. Albert F. Haslem, tried in the Criminal Court of Baltimore.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Treasurer, upon the warrant of the Comptroller, be and he is hereby authorized and directed to pay George Stallo, bondsman for Albert F. Haslem in the case of the State of Maryland v. Albert F. Haslem, tried in the Criminal Court of Baltimore, the sum of five hundred and eighty-eight dollars and sixty cents ($558.60), the sum having been paid to the State of Maryland by the sheriff of Baltimore city on or about the tenth day of February, 1903, the same being the amount realized by the sheriff aforesaid after the payment of expenses incurred by him in the sale of the property of George Stallo, which property was pledged as above for Albert F. Haslem and forfeited, the said Albert F. Haslem having thereafter been apprehended, and on the twenty-third day of April, 1906, sentenced in the Criminal Court of Baltimore city.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 6, 1908.

CHAPTER 268.

AN ACT to amend the charter of the Susquehanna Power Company and to ratify and confirm the same, together with its acquisition heretofore of certain rights, property and franchises, and to enlarge the powers of said company.

Whereas the Susquehanna Power Company is about to undertake the construction of a dam or dams across the Susquehanna river between tidewater and Mason and Dixon's line, the elevation of the crest or crests of which dam or dams shall not exceed one hundred and ten (110) feet; and

Whereas the Susquehanna Water Power and Paper Company of Harford County, whereof said Susquehanna Power Company is the successor, was heretofore on or about the sixteenth day of June, 1883, incorporated under the General Laws of this State, and immediately began the erection of a dam and the development of valuable water power upon the Susquehanna river, in Harford and Cecil counties, and thereafter, at its session of 1884, the General Assembly passed the Act of 1884, chapter 85, recognizing said development and authorizing the
