

712 of the Acts of 1906, and liable to pay the gross receipt tax for said chapter imposed on electric construction and gas companies by said Act or by any subsequent amendments or modifications thereof; provided, however, that nothing in this Act contained shall in any wise affect, alter, modify or impair the terms, provisions, covenants and obligations contained in an agreement between the Susquehanna Power and the Columbia and Port Deposit Railway Company and the Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington Railroad Company, dated the twenty-fourth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and eight.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That anything to the contrary hereinbefore in this Act or in this charter, or any amendment to the charter of the Susquehanna Power Company, or in any public or private Act of the General Assembly of Maryland, or any provision of the existing laws of this State notwithstanding, neither the Susquehanna Power Company nor its successors or assigns, shall have the right, power or authority, directly or indirectly, to manufacture, transmit, sell or dispose of in any manner electricity or electrical current for any purpose at any place within the limits of the city of Baltimore, or to manufacture, transmit, sell or dispose of in any manner electricity or electric current to be introduced into the said city in any manner whatsoever, and no other person, firm or corporation procuring electricity or electric current from the said Susquehanna Power Company, shall have the right, power or authority to introduce said current into the said city or to transmit, sell or dispose of it therein.

SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, That all Acts, public or private, or parts of such Acts, so far as the same effect any of the provisions of this Act or are inconsistent therewith, be and the same are hereby repealed.

SEC. 10. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be a public Act because of the purposes aimed to be hereby accomplished, and shall be construed liberally, both in aid of its terms and provisions and in aid of the public, and shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 6, 1908.

CHAPTER 278.

AN ACT to refund to Henry I. Phillips a certain sum of money erroneously paid into the State Treasury.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Comptroller of the Treasury of Maryland be and