

row money and to execute bonds or notes therefor, and by giving it perpetual existence.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Park Heights Water Company of Baltimore County, in addition to the powers it now has, under and by virtue of its certificate of incorporation, recorded among the Charter Records of Baltimore county in Charter Records, Liber U. B. M., No. 4, folio 396, and an amendment of the said certificate of incorporation, recorded among the Charter Records of Baltimore county, in Charter Records, Liber U. B. M., No. 4, folio 539, shall have power to borrow money on the credit of the corporation at a rate of interest to be agreed upon, and to execute bonds or promissory notes therefor, and to secure the payment thereof it may pledge the property and income of said company.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the said Park Heights Water Company of Baltimore County shall have perpetual succession and all the rights and privileges conferred upon water companies under article 23 of the Code of Public General Laws of the State of Maryland of 1888, and all amendments and supplements thereto; provided, that the said company shall have now power to lay mains or pipes, or to construct any of its works, or to within the limits of Baltimore city.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 6, 1908.

CHAPTER 405.

AN ACT to refund Thomas L. Hopewell, of St. Mary's county, Maryland, the sum of money paid by him to the Comptroller of the Treasury of the State of Maryland, and converted into the Treasury of the State for license to dredge for oysters with the sloop Cecelia, which was wrecked and a total loss on or about November the third, about two days after the said license had been applied for, and before it had been issued or received by him.

Whereas Thomas L. Hopewell, on the first day of November, 1902, did apply through the clerk of the Circuit Court of St. Mary's county, one Enoch B. Abell, depositing with him the sum of twenty dollars and ten cents ($20.10) for a license to dredge for oysters during the season beginning November 1, 1902, and ending March 15, 1903, which license. No. 579, was issued from the Comptroller of the Treasury for the sloop Cecelia on November 6, 1902;