

much as by the provisions of the Act of the General Assembly of Maryland, passed at the January session 1896, chapter 120, as amended by the Act of 1904, chapter 460 (Code of 1904, article 81, section 4), the property of any incorporated city or town in this State, is specially exempted from taxation; and

Whereas by reason of said erroneous assessment the Commissioners of Aberdeen paid to the treasurer of Harford county State taxes levied upon its aforesaid properties for the years 1896, 1897, 1898, 1899, 1900, 1901, 1902, 1903, 1904, 1905 and 1906, amounting in all for said State taxes to the sum of fifty-six dollars and seventy-three cents ($56.73); therefore

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Comptroller of the Treasury be and he is hereby authorized and directed to issue his warrant upon the Treasurer of the State in favor of the Commissioners of Aberdeen, a corporation of the State of Maryland, for the sum of fifty-six dollars and seventy-three cents ($56.73), the same being the amount of money paid by said Commissioners of Aberdeen as State taxes levied upon its property and paid to the treasurer of Harford county for the years 1896, 1897, 1898, 1899, 1900, 1901, 1902, 1903, 1904, 1905 and 1906, to be paid out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 6, 1908.

CHAPTER 423.

AN ACT to amend the charter of the Jarrettsville Building Association, a corporation duly organized under the General Laws of this State, and to enlarge its powers.

Whereas the Jarrettsville Mutual and Permanent Land, Loan and Building Association of Harford County, Maryland, was heretofore duly organized under the general laws of this State, and subsequently, by the Acts of 1898, chapter 341, of the General Assembly of this State, the corporate name of said association was changed to that of "The Jarrettsville Building Association," which amendment was subsequently accepted by said association, and by said latter name the same has since been known.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Jarrettsville Building Association, in addition to the powers possessed by it under its certificate of in-
