Selvage, a former policeman of the police force of Baltimore city, out of the funds in their possession, or subject to their control, a weekly pension of $5.00, payable on the first day of each week.

And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 6, 1908.

CHAPTER 521.

AN ACT to make valid the acts done by John W. Stonebraker, John B. Sweeney, John S. Kausler, George B. Oswald, Edward W. Mealey, Samuel B. Loose, O. H. W. Ragan, Norman B. Scott, Jr., Alexander Armstrong, Jr., and George W. Smith, Jr., an association of persons under the name of "Rose Hill Cemetery of Hagerstown," said acts having been done since March 16, 1906; and to have devolved upon the Rose Hill Cemetery of Hagerstown, incorporated February 15, 1908, all the property and assets, powers and rights, and all debts and liabilities of a former incorporation of a similar character, whose charter expired March 16, 1906.

Whereas the charter of the Rose Hill Cemetery of Hagerstown, a corporation incorporated by the Circuit Court for Washington county under the general incorporation laws of Maryland on March 16, 1866, expired by limitation on March 16, 1906; and

Whereas by an oversight a successor to said corporation was not incorporated to carry on the work of said expired corporation until the fifteenth day of February, 1908, at which time a new corporation was incorporated by the Circuit Court for Washington county, under the general incorporation laws of Maryland, said new corporation having been formed to continue the work, take the property and assume all obligations of the expired corporation; and

Whereas it is the desire of those interested to have all acts done by said association of persons between the time of the expiration of the old corporation and the formation of a new corporation made valid; and also to have devolved upon said new corporation all property and assets, powers and rights and all debts and liabilities of the said expired corporation; now, therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That all Acts similar in character, tenor and effect to
