

the city of Philadelphia; (b) To a bequest of five hundred dollars to the Presbyterian Church of Hagerstown, in Washington county, in the State of Maryland, to be invested by the trustees of the said church in some good and safe securities, with the instruction and direction that the proceeds thereof shall be used for the furtherance of the religious interests and affairs of the said church, and not to defray any expenses connected with secular or material affairs of the said church.

59. To the bequest of one hundred dollars contained in the last will and testament of Elizabeth Shifer, late of Washington county, deceased, to Salem Reformed Church.

60. To the bequest contained in the last will and testament of Thomas A. Brown, late of Washington county, deceased, whereby Saint Paul's Lutheran Church, at Greensbury, in said Washington county, shall receive annually the sum of twenty-five dollars, without interest, for a period of fifty years after said deceased's death, or so long as said church shall be kept up and remain Lutheran, said money to be used for the most necessary purposes for said church.

61. To the bequest and devise of all her estate, real and personal, contained in the last will and testament of Susan Hagerman, late of Washington county, deceased, to the German Baptist Brethren Church of Hagerstown, Washington county, Maryland.

62. To the following bequest contained in the last will and testament of Robert Bridges, late of Washington county, deceased, to wit: A bequest of four thousand dollars to the Presbyterian Church of Hancock (Old School), a body corporate, the trustees of said church to receive and hold said sum of four thousand dollars and to invest and reinvest the same in good mortgages and apply the income or interest accruing therefrom to the support and salary of the person employed and officiating as minister of said church, said income and interest alone to be applied as aforesaid, and no part of the principal.

63. To a bequest of five hundred dollars unto the Board of Foreign Missions, whereof Dr. S. H. Chester, of Nashville, Tennessee, was treasurer at the time said deceased made said will, and said sum to be paid for the use of said Board of Foreign Missions by said deceased's executors, unto the said Dr. S. H. Chester, if he be living at the time of deceased's death, otherwise to the person that may then be treasurer of said Board of Missions for the use of said board, as made by the will of Robert Bridges, of Washington county, deceased.