

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That the State Central Committee of each of said political parties aforesaid in each county shall appoint the judges and clerks as aforesaid to conduct said primary elections for each of said political parties, and the names and addresses of the judges and clerks so appointed shall be certified to the chairman of the State Central Committee of the whole State for the political party for which said judges and clerks may be appointed on or before the 15th day of October of the year in which such Senatorial primaries may be held, and they shall supply to each polling place of their respective parties a ballot box, and said State Central Committee of each of said parties for each of said legislative districts and each of said counties shall send at least one list of the registered voters in each precinct of said legislative district of Baltimore city and in each election precinct or district of each of said counties, which list shall be used by the judges and clerks at such primary elections in the same way as the books of registry are now used at the municipal and county elections for the purpose of ascertaining who is entitled to vote at the said primary elections of said respective parties and of indicating thereon the persons who shall have voted therein. Upon each registration list furnished to the judges and clerks, as aforesaid, they shall mark the letter "V" at the side of the name of each voter as he has voted, and before they commence to count the vote in the ballot box there shall be a comparison between the registration list and the tally clerk's list to see that they agree and they shall be made to agree, if possible, before the ballot boxes are opened. None but registered voters who shall declare that they have voted the ticket of the party in whose Senatorial primary election they shall apply to vote, at the general election held on the same day as said Senatorial primary election, shall be permitted to vote in said primary election. Challengers and watchers shall be allowed to be present while the votes are being received and counted, as provided in Article 33 of the Code of Public General Laws; each candidate shall be allowed to name one watcher at each polling place of his party.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the chairman of the State Central Committee for the whole State of each of said political parties to cause to be printed a sufficient number of ballots of the party to which he may belong for each polling place of his party in each precinct and election district, which ballots shall contain the names of all candidates of said respective parties, the surname of the candidate determining his place under the alphabetical arrangement as provided in Article 33 of the Code of Public General Laws
