

with him or at his residence or usual place of business, or by mailing it and addressed to him at his address, as it appears upon the books of the corporation, and in addition, such notice shall be inserted in some newspaper published in the county in which the principal office of the corporation is located, and no business shall be transacted at such meetings except that specially named in the notice.

SEC. 8B. And be it further enacted, That upon the request in writing delivered to the president or secretary or any director, of a majority of all the stockholders or members or a majority of all the shares outstanding entitled to vote, it shall be the duty of the president, secretary or director to call forthwith a meeting of the stockholders or members; such request shall state the purpose of the meeting, and notice thereof shall be given as required by the next preceding sections. If the person to whom such request in writing shall have been delivered shall fail to call forthwith such meetings, then the stockholders owning a majority of the voting shares of stock, or members constituting a majority of the voting shares of stock, or members constituting a majority of all the members, may do so by giving ten days' notice of the time, place and object of the meeting by advertisement inserted at least twice in a newspaper in the county in which the principal office is situate. At any meeting called and warned under the provisions of this and the next preceding section, any president, director or directors may, by a vote of a majority in interest of all the stockholders, or by a vote of a majority in number of all the members, be removed from office and another or others be appointed in the place of the person or persons so removed, to serve for the remainder of his or their term or terms.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 8, 1908.
