

and chapter 37 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland, session of 1868, and to repeal sections 7, 10, 13 and 18 of said chapter 252 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland, session of 1860, and to re-enact the same with amendments.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the charter and corporate existence of the Liberty and Frederick Turnpike Road Company, which was incorporated by the General Assembly of Maryland by chapter 252, session of 1860, and as amended by a supplemental Act, chapter 230 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland, session of 1867, and chapter 37 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland, session of 1868, be and the same are hereby extended and continued in force, with all rights, powers, privileges and immunities, the same as contained in said charter as granted by the said Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland, except as hereinafter changed and amended by this Act, for a further period of time from the date March 10, in the year 1910, until the date March 10, in the year 1912.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That sections 7, 10, 13 and 18 of said chapter 252 of said Acts of 1860 be and the same are hereby repealed and re-enacted so as to read as follows:

7. Three, the same being a majority of the managers, shall constitute a board or quorum for the transaction of all kinds of business, and shall be competent to appoint all such officers, agents and servants whatsoever as they may deem necessary for transacting the business of the company, to fix their compensation and dismiss them at pleasure; to provide for requiring and taking security for the faithful performance of the duty of any officer of the company; for making all contracts which shall be necessary to effect the purposes contemplated by this Act, and for settling all accounts of the company, to provide for furnishing to the stockholders certificates or other evidence of their right to stocks, and for the transfer of stock and evidence of such transfer, and to pass all such by-laws as shall be proper or necessary for exercising all the powers, rights and privileges vested in the company hereby incorporated, or in the said managers, or for the performance of the duties required of them by this Act, and the said by-laws from time to time to alter or repeal; subject, nevertheless, to the revision, alteration or repeal by the stockholders, at a general meeting as hereinbefore provided.

10. That the said company shall cause the said road to be laid out and opened, which said road shall be as wide as the width of the old road upon which they propose to build, and
