

cases describe the property taken, or the bounds of the land condemned and the quality or duration of the interest on the same valued for the company, and such valuation when paid or tendered to the owner or owners of the property or land, his, her or their legal representatives shall entitle the said company to the estates and interest in the same thus valued, and if it or they have been legally conveyed by the owner or owners of the same, and the valuation, if not received when tendered, may at any time thereafter be received without costs from the company by the owner or owners, or his, her, or their legal representatives, and the sheriff shall keep the jury together for a reasonable time until they shall agree upon and sign and seal said inquisition, and in case it shall happen that the jury can not agree after being kept together, as aforesaid, the sheriff may, in his discretion, discharge the said jury, and without any further warrant from a justice of the peace, shall within five days thereafter summon another jury of twenty inhabitants as aforesaid, who were not on the former jury, and the same proceedings shall be had in all respects as hereinbefore provided, and in case of a second or other disagreement of the jury, the same proceedings shall be had until a verdict or inquisition shall be made or returned as aforesaid, but nothing herein contained shall authorize said company to take private property for its use without just compensation therefor as agreed upon between the parties or found by a jury as aforesaid being first paid or tendered to the party or parties entitled to such compensation.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That the said bridge when built and completed, and the land connected with the same and its appurtenances and all the profits, tolls and franchises pertaining to the same, shall be vested in the said Chesaco Park Bridge Company, and it shall be lawful for the directors of said company at all times hereafter to demand and receive such reasonable tolls for the passage and use of said bridge by any person or persons as the said directors may from time to time fix and agree upon, and they may do all things requisite or necessary to regulate the use of said bridge and the immediate ways thereto by the public.

SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, That the said directors may make and declare a dividend or dividends of the net profits of said bridge from time to time as they may see fit.

SEC. 10. And be it further enacted, That if any person or persons shall wilfully injure any part or parcel of said bridge, or obstruct the free passage over the same, or the ways leading thereto, or shall attempt to pass over said bridge without paying the toll for such passage authorized as aforesaid, he, she or they shall and pay to the State of Maryland for every