

places in the United States notwithstanding prohibitory statutes enacted by the several States thereof; and

Whereas the practice of polygamy is generally condemned by the people of the United States and there is demand for the more effectual prohibition thereof, by placing the subject under Federal jurisdiction and control, at the same time reserving to each State the right to make and enforce its own laws relating to marriage and divorce; now, therefore,

Resolved, the House of Delegates concurring, That application be and hereby is made to Congress, under the provisions of article five of the Constitution of the United States for the calling of a convention to propose an amendment to the Constitution of the United States whereby polygamy and polygamous cohabitation shall be prohibited, and Congress shall be given the power to enforce such prohibition by appropriate legislation.

Resolved, That the Legislature of all other States of the United States now in session or when next convened, be and they hereby are respectfully requested to join this application by the adoption of this or an equivalent resolution.

Resolved further, That the Secretary of State be and he hereby is directed to transmit copies of this application to the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States, and to the several members of said bodies representing this State therein.

JOINT RESOLUTION No. 10.

Commemorating the service rendered the State of Maryland by the Hon. Edward Lloyd, late of Talbot county, deceased.

Whereas since the adjournment of the last General Assembly of this State, the people of this State have been called upon to mourn the loss of several of their most honored citizens and devoted public servants, among whom we number the Hon. Edward Lloyd, of Talbot county, who had represented his county in each branch of the General Assembly, having served in the Legislature of the State in 1847, being elected to the House of Delegates in that year, before he had reached the age of twenty-one years, but who had attained his majority before taking his seat in the Assembly of that year. Had also served as a member of that body in the session of 1884, and had served as a member of the State Senate in 1874, 1876, 1878, 1880, 1890 and 1892, and had presided over the Senate at the sessions of 1880 and 1892, beside holding many other positions of honor and trust in the government of his native State; therefore, be it Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That in the death of the said Edward Lloyd, this State has suffered irreparable loss.

Resolved further, That as a mark of respect to the said deceased fellow-citizen, a copy of these resolutions be bound with the Acts of Assembly for this session 1908, and that copies thereof properly engrossed and under the Great Seal, be forwarded by the Secretary of the Senate to the family of the said deceased.

JOINT RESOLUTION No. 11.

Relating to the death of the Hon. William Pinkney Whyte.

Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That its members have received with the profoundest sorrow the intelligence that the Hon. William Pinkney Whyte has ended his career of mortal usefulness, and has entered upon the ampler and happier state of existence
