

SEC. 7. The Governor of the State, by virtue of his office, shall be the Commander-in-Chief of the militia of the State, except as of such portions as may at times be in the service of the United States. No armed military force from another State, Territory or District shall be permitted to enter the State for the purpose of doing military duty therein, without the permission of the Governor, unless such force is part of the United States Army or is actually under the authority of the United States.

SEC. 8. The staff of the Governor shall consist of one Adjutant General, who shall also perform the duties of Quartermaster General, and who shall also be Chief of Staff, who shall have the rank of Brigadier General, whose salary shall be two thousand dollars per annum, and the said sum is hereby appropriated for that purpose annually, and the Comptroller is directed to draw his warrant on the Treasurer, who is hereby directed to pay the same in equal monthly instalments; and a Chief of Ordnance, an Inspector General, a Surgeon General, a Judge Advocate General, all of whom shall have the rank of Brigadier General, shall be appointed by the Governor; and the Governor is hereby empowered to appoint such number of aides, not exceeding ten, with the rank of Colonel, as may be necessary to the discharge of his duties as Commander-in-Chief, and the Assistant Adjutant General. The Adjutant General shall be appointed by the Governor from the officers of the National Guard, from those who have served in the National Guard as officers, or from officers of the United States Army above the rank of Captain, and he shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges granted to other officers in the National Guard in this article. All of these staff officers shall be appointed by the Governor and shall hold office during his pleasure, and their commissions shall expire with the term of office of the Governor appointing them, with the exception of the Adjutant General, who shall hold office until the qualification of his successor.

SEC. 9. The Governor shall have the power in case insurrection, invasion, tumult, riot or breach of the peace, or imminent danger thereof, to order into the active service of the State any part of the militia that he may deem proper. When the militia of this State, or a part thereof, is called forth under the Constitution and laws of the United States, the Governor shall order out for service the active militia or such part thereof as may be necessary, and if the number available be insufficient he shall order out such part of the reserve militia as he may deem necessary. During the absence of organizations of the National Guard in the service of the United States
