

known place of abode or business, or by mailing to the post-office nearest thereto. Such warning may be given by any officer or non-commissioned officer. The officer or non-commissioned officer giving such notice or warning shall, if required, make a return thereof containing the names of the person warned, and the time, place and manner of warning, if required by the officer issuing the order; such return may be verified by his oath, which may be administered by any commanding officer. Such verified returns shall be as good evidence on the trial of any person returned as a delinquent of the facts therein stated as if such officer or non-commissioned officer had testified to the same before the delinquency court on such trial. Every commanding officer shall make the like return, on honor and with like effect, of every delinquency or neglect of duty of his officers or non-commissioned officers, and also of every enlisted man who shall refuse or neglect to perform such military duty as may be required.

SEC. 68. The system of discipline and exercises of the National Guard of this State shall conform generally for the land forces to that of the United States Army, and for the Naval Reserves to that of the United States Navy, as they are now or may hereafter be prescribed by the President and to the provisions of the laws of the United States, except as otherwise provided in this chapter.

SEC. 69. The military courts of this State shall be:

1. General Courts-Martial.
2. Regimental Courts-Martial.
3. Summary Courts.
4. Courts of Inquiry.
5. Delinquency Courts, which are of two kinds: (1) for officers, (2) for enlisted men.

The constitution and jurisdiction of courts-martial: The form and manner in which the proceedings of military courts shall be conducted and recorded, and the forms of oaths and affirmations taken in the administration of military law by such courts; the limits of punishment of officers and enlisted men when on duty, as provided in Section 13 of this Article, and the proceedings in revision shall be governed by the Articles of War and the law and proceedings of the Courts-Martial of the United States.

SEC. 70. No action or proceeding shall be prosecuted or maintained against a member of a military court or officer or person acting under its authority, or reviewing its proceedings on account of the approval or imposition or execution of any sentence, or the imposition or collection of a fine or penalty, or
