

the execution of any warrant, writ, execution, process or mandate of a military court.

SEC. 71. The jurisdiction of the courts and boards, established by this article shall be presumed, and the burden of proof shall rest on any person seeking to oust such courts or boards of jurisdiction in any action or proceedings.

SEC. 72. All organizations shall be provided by the State with such arms, equipments, colors, camp and garrison equipage, books of instruction and record, and other supplies as may be necessary for the proper performance of the duty required of them by this chapter; and each organization shall keep such property in proper repair and in good condition.

SEC. 73. All officers and enlisted men who enter the service of the State for three years, shall be furnished by the State with a service uniform, or such uniforms as the Governor may direct, corresponding in make and general appearance to the uniforms of the United States Army and United States Navy, respectively.

SEC. 74. Regiments, battalions and separate organizations may, with the consent of the Governor, adopt a full-dress uniform of their own and at their own expense.

SEC. 75. Every officer and enlisted man to whom public property of the State or United States has been issued shall be personally responsible to the State for such property, and no one shall be relieved from such responsibility except it be shown to the satisfaction of the Governor that the loss or destruction of such property was unavoidable and in no way the fault of the person responsible for the same; in all other cases the value of the property lost or destroyed shall be charged against the person at fault or the organization to which it had been issued; and such person or organization, if not relieved from such charge by the Governor, shall pay the value of such property to the Adjutant General within one year after such loss or destruction. The value of the lost or destroyed property and the persons or organizations to be charged therewith shall be determined by a board, to consist of an inspector on the staff of the Brigade Commander and the Commanding Officer of the organizations in which such property is lost or destroyed. In case of disagreement, such value shall be fixed by the Adjutant General.

SEC. 76. All arms, equipment, and other property furnished to organizations of this State shall, when required by the Adjutant General, the commanding officer of the Brigade, the commanding officer of the Naval Brigade, the commanding officer
