

entitled to the following increase in pay during the year succeeding the season of said qualifications and beginning on January 1st following; and, provided further, that said enlisted man, qualified as aforesaid, shall be present at the annual inspection of his organization next succeeding said qualification: Experts, twenty per cent.; sharpshooters, fifteen per cent.; and marksmen, ten per cent. In addition to the pay and allowances heretofore made, each enlisted man, serving a full term of three years and attending each annual inspection during that period, or legally excused for any non-attendance thereof, shall be given a clothing allowance of fifteen dollars at the expiration of such enlistment, provided he has performed 75 per cent. of all military duty required of him and accounts for or returns all property issued to him in good condition, reasonable wear and tear excepted; but the right to make deductions for property not accounted for to the satisfaction of a surveying officer is hereby reserved; and, provided further, that such enlisted man shall be entitled to an honorable discharge.

SEC. 79. All officers detailed to serve on any board or commission ordered by the Governor, or under his authority by the commanding officer of the Brigade or commanding officer of the Naval Brigade, or any court of inquiry, court-martial or delinquency court, ordered by proper authority in pursuance of any provision of this chapter, shall be paid a sum equal to one day's pay for each day actually employed in such board or court engaged in the business thereof, or in traveling to and from the same; the sum in no case shall exceed ten days' pay and actual traveling expenses, unless upon application of the Judge Advocate of a court or the presiding officer of a delinquency court, or the presiding officer of the board, the officer appointing the board or court has authorized such board or court to sit for a longer period, or in case of such delinquency courts the Governor or the officer ordering such a court has authorized such court to sit for a longer period than ten days. Officers detailed to serve on any courts or commissions appointed by their respective organization commanders shall not be paid. In case of boards, courts or commissions serving more than one day, the rate of pay shall be computed at the rate of six hours as one day's service.

SEC. 80. Any commissioned officer assigned to special duty for the Governor, or by his authority, shall be paid per diem pay for the time actually employed, and his necessary traveling expenses when such payment is authorized by the Governor. Judge Advocates shall be paid for services in bringing any suits provided for in this chapter, and for services in actions or proceedings by habeas corpus, certiorari or otherwise, such
