

ARTICLE XCVI.

UNITED STATES.

CHAPTER 194.

AN ACT to repeal section 2 of chapter 263 of the Acts of 1902, entitled "An Act to cede the jurisdiction of the State of Maryland to the United States of America over so much land as has been or may be hereafter acquired for the public purposes of the United States," for the purpose of making the same applicable to Charles county, by repealing the exemption in said Act with reference to Charles county, subject to conditions hereinafter set forth in section 2.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That section 2 of chapter 263 of the Acts of 1902, entitled "An Act to cede the jurisdiction of the State of Maryland to the United States of America over so much land as has been or may be hereafter acquired for the public purposes of the United States," be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted so as to read as follows:

SEC. 2. That all lands and tenements which may be granted as aforesaid to the United States shall be and continue so long as the same shall be used for the purposes in the last section mentioned, exonerated and discharged from all taxes, assessment and other charges which may be imposed under the authority of the State of Maryland; provided, however, that the rights of citizenship and other rights as residents of Charles county of persons domiciled on land owned by the United States at Indian Head shall be continued and enjoyed by them to the same extent as now provided by law for persons domiciled at the Naval Academy at Annapolis as residents of Anne Arundel county.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That all Acts or parts of Acts inconsistent with the provisions of this Act be and the same are hereby repealed, and that this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 30, 1908.

CHAPTER 217.

AN ACT to give consent by the State of Maryland to the acquisition by the United States of such lands as may be needed