

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That the citizens of the said town, a suitable time before said election, shall assemble and nominate one or more candidates for the respective offices, and the ticket so nominated shall be the official ballot to be voted at said election, and a vote cast for either of the respective candidates shall be counted as a vote in favor of this Act.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That Leonard Keyes, P. H. Gallagher, Jr., and Gordon Durst be and are hereby appointed registrars to hold the first registration of voters under this Act, and that as soon as practicable after the passage of this Act they shall give at least ten days' notice of the time and place, by hand bills posted in at least three public places in said town, at which all qualified voters as prescribed in the third section of this Act, may register; and the said officers of registration shall take the oath before some justice of the peace of said county to permit every qualified person to register, and none other. The majority of said registration officers shall have power to do all things under this section in the event of the death or the refusal of one of them to act; that upon the completion of the registry of voters the registrars herein named shall give to the judges of election herein named a list of the voters registered. That after the first election the Mayor and Council shall make rules and regulations in regard to registration as they may deem proper.

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That Joseph McCormick, Albert Frenzel and R. K. Snyder be and they are hereby appointed judges of election to hold the first or second election under this Act; and that ten days before the third Tuesday in April, 1908, they shall give notice that the election will be held, and the place thereof, by hand bills posted in at least three public places in said town, at which election all persons duly registered under the eighth section of this Act shall be entitled to vote for one person for Mayor, four persons for Councilmen, one person for clerk, one person for bailiff, and that said judges of election, before opening the polls, shall take oath before some justice of the peace of said county to permit every registered voter to vote, and none other; and a majority of said judges shall have power to conduct said election in case one of them dies or refuses to act; and they shall make returns to the clerk of the Circuit Court for Allegany county as specified in section six of this Act.

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That the said Mayor and Councilmen, or a majority of them, shall have power to pass all ordinances necessary for the good government of said town; to prevent and remove all nuisances in or upon the streets, highways, lanes or alleys, drains or water courses, or in or
