

purposes shall not exceed the assessment for State and county purposes; and said Mayor and Council shall have power from time to time to pass such ordinances as they may deem proper for the assessment, re-assessment, transfer and appeals from assessment of the property of said town

SEC. 12. And be it enacted, That all fines, forfeitures imposed by the ordinances of said town shall be imposed by the said Mayor or any justice of the peace resident in said town, upon a warrant to be issued, directed to the bailiff or any policeman of said town, and the person convicted, in default of payment of the fine and costs, may be committed to the lockup of said town or to the Allegany county jail, and the said Mayor or the justice of the peace and bailiff or policeman shall be entitled to the same costs as are provided for similar offenses against the State.

SEC. 13. And be it enacted, That in case the Mayor or one of the Councilmen dies, or refuses to act, the remainder of the Councilmen may elect or appoint one in place of the one so removed, and in case of the Mayor being removed by death, resignation or disqualification, the Councilmen shall elect one of their number as Mayor to serve for the unexpired term of the Mayor so removed, and appoint some one to fill the unexpired term of the Councilman elected to serve as Mayor.

SEC. 14. And be it enacted, That the Council shall give at least ten days' notice of all elections by posting hand bills in at least three public places in the said town as to time and place of holding said elections, and all places in said town within one-half mile thereof where spirituous or fermented liquors and lager beer are sold or dispensed shall remain closed, and no liquor sold or dispensed therein on the day of such election; and any person or persons neglecting or refusing to close his saloon or said places where spirituous liquors are sold or dispensed in said town or within one-half mile thereof on day of any election in said town, shall, on conviction, be subject to the same penalties as are now imposed in the laws governing State and county elections.

SEC. 15. And be it enacted, That at the election in said town for the respective officers thereof, each voter shall have written or printed on his ticket "For Incorporation," or "Against Incorporation," and if a majority of the votes so cast are for incorporation, then this Act shall take effect and the election thereunder shall be valid. If, however, a majority of the votes so cast are against incorporation, then this Act shall become null and void until the third Tuesday in April, 1909, when the citizens may again assemble and vote as herein provided in