

section 9, by giving ten days' notice of such time and place of said election.

SEC. 16. And be it enacted, That in case this bill does not become a law in time to hold said election on the third Tuesday in April, 1908, then the election may be held as soon thereafter as may be practical to allow the said ten days' notice.

SEC. 17. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 6, 1908.

BILLIARDS—See Chapter 643, Article XI, Frederick County.

CHAPTER 17.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact with amendments chapter 545 of the Acts of 1906, entitled "Allegany County," sub-title "Birds and Game."

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That sections 12, 13 and 14 of article 1 of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Allegany County," sub-title "Birds and Game," as enacted by chapter No. 545 of the Acts of 1906, be and the same are hereby repealed and re-enacted so as to read as follows:

SEC. 12. It shall be unlawful for any person to kill or destroy any ruffed grouse, quail, pheasant or partridge on or after the second day of January until the first day of November in each and every year, under a penalty of five dollars for each ruffed grouse, quail, pheasant or partridge so killed or destroyed.

SEC. 13. It shall be unlawful for any person to kill or destroy any wild turkey on or after the second day of January until the first day of November, or any wood-cock on or after the second day of January until the first day of July in each and every year, or any robin at any time, under a penalty of five dollars for each wild turkey, wood-cock or robin so killed or destroyed.

SEC. 14. It shall be unlawful for any person to kill or destroy any rabbit on or after the second day of January until the first day of November, or any squirrel on or after the second day of January until the first day of September of each and every year under a penalty of five dollars for each rabbit or squirrel so killed or destroyed. It shall be unlawful for any person to use ferrets in the hunting of birds or game under a penalty of not