

ties not greater than one quart at any one time; but may sell said spirituous liquors in quantities as great as or less than one quart at any one time, unless, said licensee shall also have a license (granted as hereinbefore prescribed) to sell "spirituous and fermented liquors by retail," under article 56, sections 55 to 66, inclusive, of the Code of Public General Laws. No person having a license to sell spirituous or fermented liquors by retail under said article 56, sections 55 to 66, inclusive, shall sell spirituous or fermented liquors or lager beer in quantities less than one pint, at any time, unless he or she shall have the lager beer saloon, oyster house or liquor license herein provided for. No license under this Act shall be issued for a longer period than one year, and all licenses shall expire on the 1st day of May in each year, and all applications shall be filed as hereinbefore provided for, but no licenses shall be issued before the 1st day of May in each year, and any license may be transferred or assigned under the provisions of this Act. Any licensee or his personal representatives or attorney may assign the unexpired term thereof to another; provided, that said assignee shall comply with all the requirements and provisions of this Act, in the same manner as is hereby required of an original applicant for a license under this Act, and, upon such transfer, the license so transferred shall have the consent of the clerk of the Circuit Court for Allegany county endorsed on said license, and such assignee shall in every respect be subject to all the requirements, provisions and penalties of this Act, and also of all privileges and benefits hereby conferred; and the court shall have the power to consider remonstrances thereto, and allow or disallow such assignments as the court is herein authorized to allow or reject original applications. No lager beer or malt liquors sold in Allegany county shall be sold by the bottler thereof in quantities less than one dozen pints, unless such bottler shall have first been granted a regular saloon or oyster house license under the provisions of this Act; nor, shall any bottler sell lager beer or malt liquors in any quantities to be drunk on the premises, unless he, she or they shall have first been granted a saloon or oyster house license under this Act. No person having a license to sell spirituous or fermented liquors by retail under article 56, sections 55 to 66, inclusive, of the Code of Public General Laws, shall sell spirituous or fermented liquors or lager beer to be drunk on the premises, unless he, she or they shall have procured a saloon or oyster house license under the provisions of this Act.

175c. No person shall knowingly sell or barter any spirituous or fermented liquors or lager beer to any person who is a minor or under twenty-one years of age, nor shall any person
