

in all respects be subject to the conditions, provisions and penalties of this Act.

175P. It shall be unlawful for any licensee under this Act to sell any spirituous or fermented liquors or lager beer, or to suffer or permit any person except the owners or employes to enter or remain in his saloon or place of business between the hours of 11.30 o'clock P. M. and 5.30 o'clock A. M. Monday. The principal room where said intoxicating liquors are licensed to be sold under the provisions of this Act shall be open to public view during the hours of closing, as provided in this Act, and lights, where gas or electricity can be secured, shall be kept burning in said room continuously between said hours of closing, so that persons passing said places of business may have an unobstructed view of the interior of said principal room. Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on indictment and conviction thereof, shall be fined not less than twenty dollars nor more than fifty dollars. Any person found guilty of violating the provisions of this section a second time shall be held liable to the same fine as the first offense, which the court is hereby authorized to impose, and the court may, in its discretion, revoke the license of the party so convicted of violating the provisions of this section a second time, and no other license shall be granted to said party for a period of three years after said revocation.

175Q. If any person who shall have received a license under the now existing law and shall be refused a license under this Act, he, she or they shall be allowed the term of two months to dispose of such stock as he, she or they may have on hand, but subject, however, to the penalties herein provided for violations of the provisions of this Act; but if such person shall do a liquor business after the expiration of said two months, he, she or they shall be deemed guilty of selling liquors without license and be liable to the penalties therefor; provided, however, that all licenses in force at the time of the adoption of this Act shall continue in force until the 1st day of May, 1908; and provided further, that nothing contained in this Act shall affect cases now pending for violations of the liquor law for Allegany county which shall have occurred prior to the time when this Act shall take effect; but all such cases and violations of the law now in force shall be prosecuted as if this Act had not been passed and adopted. And no license shall be granted to any person whose license has been or may be revoked or suppressed under the now existing law until two years shall have expired from the time of the suppression or revocation of such license.
