CHAPTER 220.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact with amendments section 216m of article 1 of the Public Local Laws of the State of Maryland, title "Allegany County," sub-title "Roads," as said section was enacted by chapter 138 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland for the year 1906.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That section 216E of article 1 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Allegany County," sub-title "Roads," as said section was enacted by chapter 138 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland of the year 1906, be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted so as to read as follows:

SEC. 216E. The County Commissioners shall, in their annual levy in the year 1908, and annually thereafter, levy upon the assessable property of Allegany county not less than forty thousand dollars for the use of the road directors of Allegany county, which shall be collected as other taxes are collected; and to the extent of such levy the County Treasurer of Allegany county shall honor the drafts to be signed by the chairman of such directors and to be countersigned by said engineer; but this Act shall not be construed as depriving the County Commissioners of such power as they may possess of appropriating sums of money to the different incorporated towns of the county for road improvements. And the said County Commissioners are further directed by their annual levy in the year 1908, to levy upon the assessable property of Allegany county an additional sum of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), and by their annual levy in the year 1909 a like sum of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), for the use of the road directors of such county in the building of permanent roads therein; and such County Commissioners are further
