

mitted in said first precinct of the said second district, it shall be the duty of the justice of the peace before whom such a warrant is sworn out to make the same returnable before the said police justice or one of the justices of the peace of the city of Annapolis, for hearing and trial.

172d. Whenever any person shall be arrested in said first precinct of the said second district upon any criminal charge or for violation of any law of this State, whether such arrest is made without a writ or is made under a warrant issued by any justice of the peace of the said second district, it shall be the duty of such officer making such arrest, or in whose custody the person so arrested may be, to take the person so arrested before the said police justice or one of the justices of the peace of the city of Annapolis for hearing or trial.

176e. The justice of the peace of the second election district other than the police justice shall be allowed the fees now allowed by law for issuing any warrant of arrest or summons, for witnesses in criminal cases, but no other fees for the hearing or trial of any criminal cases, or for the commitment of any person charged or tried, shall be allowed such justice of the peace, nor shall the County Commissioners allow any constable or officer making arrest, either without a writ under a warrant or for making return of any criminal process or service of summons for witnesses, unless the person arrested is brought before the said police justice, or the process served is returned before him as hereinbefore provided.

176f. The police justice of the first precinct of the second district of the said county shall at the first regular meeting of the County Commissioners, held in each month, make a report in writing, verified under oath made before the clerk of said Commissioners or one of the Commissioners, of all criminal cases heard or tried before him during the preceding month, which report shall state in each case the name of the defendant, the offence charged, the name of the person upon whose complaint the warrant was issued, the number of witnesses summoned, the name of the officer serving the warrant and summons, the judgment rendered, the amount of fine or penalty imposed, the amount of cost taxed, which shall include all constable's costs and constable's fees, where process is served by police officers acting with authority of constables, and the amount of fine and costs collected by him, and all such fines and costs, including constable's and officer's fees for serving warrants, and all other process which in all cases shall be properly taxed and collected, shall, at the time of making his report, be paid to the order of the County Commissioners.