

ARTICLE III.

BALTIMORE COUNTY.

CHAPTER 495.

AN ACT to repeal article 3 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Baltimore County," and the several acts and parts of acts amendatory thereof or inconsistent therewith, and to re-enact said article 3, with amendments, under appropriate sub-titles.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That article 3 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Baltimore County," and the several Acts and parts of Acts amendatory thereof or inconsistent therewith, be and the same are hereby repealed, and the said article 3 is hereby re-enacted, with amendments, under the appropriate sub-titles hereinafter contained, so as to read as follows:

1. It shall not be lawful for any person or persons riding on a bicycle or other vehicle of that description, to ride upon any sidewalk or footway laid along any public highway in Baltimore county, or upon any sidewalk or footway laid along any private road or street in the said county.

2. Any person violating this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, before a justice of the peace, shall be liable to a fine of not less than two dollars ($2) nor more than five dollars ($5) for each and every offense.

3. It shall be lawful for banks and bankers in Baltimore county to close their doors for business at twelve o'clock noon on each and every Saturday in the year; after twelve o'clock noon shall be a legal half-holiday, so far as regards the presenting for payment or acceptance, and the protesting and giving notice of the dishonor of bills of exchange, bank checks, drafts, promissory notes and other negotiable paper, and for these purposes shall be treated and considered as the first day of the week, commonly called Sunday, and all such bills, checks, drafts and notes presentable for acceptance or payment on the secular or business days next succeeding; provided, however, that all bills of exchange, drafts and promissory notes made after the passage of this Act, except those
