

dollars, authorizing the holder thereof to catch any birds, collect and take their nests and eggs, for scientific purposes only, without being subject to the penalties imposed by this section; but before said clerk shall issue said permit he shall require the applicant to produce before him satisfactory written testimony, from at least two scientific men, certifying to the good character of the applicant, and that he is a proper person to be entrusted with such privilege, and he shall also demand from said applicant a good and sufficient bond, to be approved by said clerk, in the sum of fifty dollars, conditioned for the strict observance of the privilege so granted; should the person obtaining such permit, catch any of the birds mentioned in section four or disturb or destroy the eggs as mentioned in section five of this article for other than scientific purposes, he shall forfeit to the county the bond herein required to be given, and shall also be subject, for each offense, to the penalties provided in this section for other persons.

7. The possession of any person, within said counties, of any of the above mentioned birds, shot, killed or otherwise destroyed, shall be prima facie evidence of the violation by such person of section one; and it shall be the duty of the constables of said counties, respectively, to arrest all persons they may detect in, or who may be charged with the violation of sections four and five, and take them before the nearest justice of the peace, to be dealt with according to law.

8. No person shall shoot, or in any manner catch, kill, trap, take or have in possession in Baltimore county, any rabbit, pheasant, partridge, or woodcock, between December 24th and November 1st, exclusive of both dates, or upon any Sunday or election day or when the ground is covered with snow; and no person shall shoot, or in any manner catch, kill, trap, take or have in possession in Baltimore county, any squirrel, between November 1st and September the 15th, exclusive of both dates, or upon any Sunday or election day.

9. No person or corporation or transportation company shall have the right to buy, sell or offer for sale for the purpose of export from Baltimore county or to export from or to carry out of said Baltimore county any pheasant, partridge or woodcock, except as in this article otherwise provided. Any person violating the provisions of either this or the preceding section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall pay a fine of five dollars for each and every bird, rabbit, or squirrel so taken, killed or have in possession or transported, bought or sold for export, and in