

default of such fine shall be imprisoned in the House of Correction or county jail for a period of not less than twenty days.

10. It shall not be lawful for any person not a bona fide resident or taxpayer of the county to shoot any partridge, pheasant, woodcock, jacksnipe, rabbit or squirrel in said county without having first obtained from the Clerk of the Circuit Court of said county a license permitting the person therein named, whose photograph shall be attached thereto, to shoot said game in said county for one year from the date on which such license was issued, and such license shall not be transferable, and the person named therein or the party procuring such license shall pay to said clerk therefor the sum of five dollars and a clerk's fee of twenty-five cents, which amount shall be paid to the State game warden, who shall expend the sum so received as hereinafter provided. Any non-resident violating the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall pay a fine of ten dollars for each and every pheasant, partridge, woodcock, jacksnipe, rabbit or squirrel taken, shot, killed or had in possession contrary to the provisions of this section, and costs, and in default the offender shall be confined to the House of Correction or county jail for twenty days or until the fine and costs are paid; one-half to be paid to the informer and the other half to the State game warden to be expended by him as hereinafter provided; and such licensee shall have in his possession when gaming, and exhibit the same whenever called upon by any citizen of said county, and upon refusal to do so shall be subjected to the fines and penalties hereinafter provided for non-compliance with the provisions of this section. License forms for the use as aforesaid shall be furnished by the Clerk of the Circuit Court and issued under his official seal; provided, that nothing in this section shall be taken to prohibit the owners of land in said county from giving written permission to non-residents to hunt upon their own lands in said county which written permission shall be exhibited as above prescribed in the case of license issued by the clerk of the court under the same penalties for refusal to show the same.

11. Any owner who shall permit his dog or dogs to run at large during a closed season, and pursue or kill, harm or destroy the eggs, nests or young thereof, shall be deemed guilty of misdemeanor and be subject to a fine of five dollars for each and every offense, one-half to go to the informer, or to imprisonment in jail for five days, in the discretion of the court