

and shall destroy all orders for the issue of subpoenas to procure the attendance of witnesses in civil and criminal cases, and the sheriff's returns of such subpoenas, which have lain in the said clerk's office for two years and upwards.

60. The books now in the office of said clerk, lettered and known respectively as Plats No. 1 and Plats No. 2, are hereby declared to be records belonging to said clerk's office; and all plats recorded therein by said clerk shall have the same effect and validity as if recorded among the land records, or the mortgage records, or the judicial records of said clerk's office, as the nature of the case may require. The original and certified copies of plats recorded in said clerk's office shall be receivable in evidence to the same effect and extent as original and certified copies of other records in said office; and in the event of the loss, destruction or defacement, in whole or in part, of any original plat so recorded, certified copies of the original or of copies previously certified may be substituted therefor with all the effect of the originals.

61. It shall be lawful to close the clerk's office of said court at the hour of 1 P. M. on Saturday of each week; provided, either judge of the Circuit Court of said county may order and direct at any time said office to be kept open, and the clerk and such deputies to remain for such a time as said judge may deem necessary to the convenience of the court.

62. Said clerk shall make or have made all such transcripts of the land indexes and mortgage indexes in his office and of the equity dockets and indexes to conform to the requirements of sections 55 and 56 of article 3 of the Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Baltimore County," sub-title "Clerk," as may from time to time be required, the same only to be done on the written order of one of the judges of said court, and subject to his approval.

63. Said clerk is further authorized and required, under the supervision of the judges of said court, to procure or have procured suitable cases, of modern plans and styles, in which to file, or have filed, the law, insolvent and miscellaneous papers in the office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Baltimore County, and to make such changes in and additions to the furniture and fixtures of said office, subject to the approval of the judges aforesaid, as he shall from time to time deem necessary.

64. The expense incurred in the making up of said transcripts and of procuring the necessary cases and of filing the
