

they may think proper, not exceeding two dollars per day, while attending said court during its sittings in equity.

104. The County Commissioners shall annually levy such sum of money as will be sufficient to pay the crier of the circuit for the next ensuing year.

105. At the end of each quarter of every year, the clerk of the Circuit Court shall certify to the treasurer of the county the amount due said crier, and the treasurer shall forthwith pay the same.

106. The bailiffs of the Circuit Court shall be paid a salary of fifty dollars per month each in lieu of all fees.

107. The said salary shall be due and payable by the County Commissioners on the first Tuesday of each and every month.

108. The County Commissioners shall annually levy such sum of money as will be sufficient to pay the bailiff's of the Circuit Court for said county, for the next ensuing year, which shall be paid in the same manner and upon the same evidence as the crier is directed to be paid.

109. No person shall shoot or otherwise destroy any wild deer in Baltimore county from the first day of January to the first day of September, under the penalty of five dollars for every deer so killed or destroyed, to be recovered before a justice of the peace for the said county as other debts, and to be paid to the County Commissioners for the use of the county, as in the case of other fines and forfeitures.

110. No person shall keep or maintain any kennel or pack of hounds, or any number of that species of dogs, exceeding three, within Baltimore county, within one mile of the city of Baltimore; and any person keeping and maintaining, or causing to be kept and maintained, any number of hounds, contrary to the provisions of this section, shall forfeit and pay the sum of twenty dollars for every such offense, and shall moreover be subject to pay the further sum of one dollar per day for each day the said hounds, exceeding as above, shall be so kept or maintained thereafter.

111. The Highways Commission of Baltimore county shall grade, kerb and macadamize the road or way now called Eastern avenue at Highlandtown or so much thereof as they may from time to time consider necessary for the public convenience.

112. The Highlandtown and Point Breeze Railway Company, a body corporate, or its successors or assigns, shall