

raise or lower their tracks in the bed of said road or way, now called Eastern avenue, as the Highways Commission of Baltimore county may direct.

113. The said Highlandtown-Point Breeze Railway Company, its successors or assigns, shall grade and macadamize the bed of said road or way, now called Eastern avenue, between their tracks, and two feet on either side of the same, as the Highways Commission of Baltimore county may direct, and keep them at all times in good repair.

114. That should said company, its successors or assigns, after a reasonable notice from the said County Commissioners, fail to comply with the provisions of the two preceding sections, it or they shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof before a justice of the peace of Baltimore county, be fined not less than twenty dollars nor more than fifty dollars, for each and every day, until said Highlandtown and Point Breeze Railway Company, its successors or assigns, complies with the provisions of the preceding sections.

115. That before the said Highways Commission of Baltimore county shall expend any money under the provisions of the preceding sections, the property owners on said Eastern avenue are hereby required to deposit with the treasurer of Baltimore county, as a special fund, seventy-five cents per front foot on all property to be improved on said avenue, for the purpose of kerbing the same and paving a gutter five feet wide.

116. It shall be unlawful for any person to shoot a gun, guns, or other firearms, from and off Eastern avenue bridge crossing Back river, in Baltimore county.

117. Upon information given upon oath or affirmation to any justice of the peace of said county, or to the Circuit Court for said county of any violation of the preceding section, said justice of the peace or said Circuit Court shall issue a warrant for the arrest of the offender, and for the seizure of the gun or other firearms in the possession of such offender, to be directed to the sheriff, or to any constable of Baltimore county, or other officer authorized to make arrests, or to any citizen of said county; and it shall be the duty of any sheriff, constable or other officer authorized to make arrests, or of any citizen, upon the receipt of said warrant, to arrest any person violating the preceding section, and to seize any guns, or other firearms used in violation of said section, and to bring such offender before a justice of the peace of said
