

127. Should any person wish to fence in any land which has hitherto been unenclosed, after having built his proportion of said fence, he shall give the party whose land adjoins his notice in writing that he must erect his proportion of said fence within sixty days; and if the party so notified shall fail to erect his proportion of said fence, the same remedy as given in the preceding section shall apply.

128. Before proceeding, however, to make or repair the fences mentioned in the two preceding sections, the person who has given the notification in writing shall apply to a justice of the peace of the county, who, upon affidavit of the party that he has given such notice, and that said fence has not been erected or repaired within the time specified, shall summon three disinterested landholders, who shall view the said fence and shall determine the proper amount of money to be expended in erecting or repairing the same in a good and substantial manner, and said inquisition shall be put in writing, and the party erecting or repairing such fence shall not expend more than said sum.

129. The fences to be made or kept in repair shall be at least four feet high, and shall be sufficiently close to prevent hogs from pressing through same; provided, said fence be not within five miles from the city of Baltimore.

130. The landholders summoned under section 128 shall be allowed the same per diem as witnesses before a justice of the peace for each day they may be engaged in the performance of their duties.

131. The whole of all fines and forfeitures imposed by the Circuit Court for Baltimore county and justices of the peace of said county shall be paid to the County Commissioners of Baltimore county, for the use of said county.

132. All fines and forfeitures imposed by the Circuit Court for Baltimore county and collected by the sheriff of said county, shall be paid over by him to the said County Commissioners of Baltimore county within ten days after he shall have collected the same; and all fines and forfeitures imposed and collected by justices of the peace in said county shall be paid over to said County Commissioners as provided by section 220 of this article, sub-title "Justices of the Peace and Constables."

133. At the time of paying over such fines and forfeitures as aforesaid, the sheriff or justice of the peace, as the case may be, shall make out and furnish to the said County Com-
