

Mayor or City Council of Baltimore, for the use of the engines, fire apparatus, and water of said city, in the extinguishment of fire in Baltimore county.

142. No person shall destroy the fish in any branch or creek in Baltimore county, by putting quicklime therein, under the penalty of twenty dollars for each offense, to be recovered before a justice of the peace of said county.

143. The owners of all dams on said river are required to make and keep, or cause to be made and kept in repair, proper fish ladders and have them placed on said dam so as to afford to the fish in said river free course up and down said river.

144. If the owners of said dams fail to comply with the provisions of the preceding section, they shall be liable, upon conviction thereof, by summary process, before any justice of the peace of this State, in the county in which said dam is situated, to a penalty of not less than fifty nor more than one hundred dollars.

145. That it shall not be lawful in Baltimore county for any person to take, catch, or kill any brook trout less than six inches in length, or in any manner or by any contrivance whatsoever, saving only with line and hook, baited and tied with the artificial fly; or to take, catch or kill or have in his possession any brook trout, except during the months of March, April, May and June; or obstruct any way any stream in which trout have been placed, under penalty of ten dollars for each and every brook trout so taken, caught or killed or had in his possession, and a like penalty for each and every such obstruction; but this section shall not prevent any person or corporation from catching brook trout in any manner or at any time in water owned by him or them or upon his or their premises, to stock other waters.

146. That any violation of the preceding may be prosecuted by any citizen of said county before any justice of the peace or Circuit Court for said county or a justice of the peace of the city or county or Circuit Court for the county wherein the offender shall reside.

147. It shall not be lawful for any person to fish in the waters of Gunpowder river, Middle river, Back river, Brown's creek or Hawk Cove, or their tributary streams, except Bird river, situated in Baltimore county, or in the waters of the Chesapeake bay within one mile of the entrance of said rivers,
