

to the sheriff or any constable of the county or other officers authorized to make arrests, or any citizen; and it shall be the duty of any sheriff, constable or other officer authorized to make arrests, or citizen, upon receipt of said warrant, to arrest any person violating either of said sections, and to seize any such seine, net, boat or other fishing outfit, found being used in such violation, and to bring such offender before a justice of the peace most accessible or convenient; and upon conviction thereof the said offender shall be fined not less than twenty dollars nor more than two hundred dollars, and shall forfeit the seine or net, boat and other outfit used in such fishing, which shall be sold, and the proceeds paid to the County Commissioners for the county; and in case of non-payment of the fine and costs imposed by said justice the said offender shall be confined in the county jail for a period not exceeding forty days and not less than twenty days, or until said fine and costs are paid.

153. It shall not be lawful for any person to fish with seines in the waters of the Gunpowder river from the twentieth day of May to the twentieth day of August, and from the first day of November to the first day of February; and any person so fishing in said waters shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction of having violated this section, shall pay a fine of not less than twenty dollars, nor more than one hundred dollars for each offense.

154. Any sheriff or constable who shall be satisfied either upon his own views or from information received on oath, that any person has violated the provisions of the preceding section, is authorized and empowered to arrest the offender.

155. The justices of the peace for Baltimore and Harford counties, and the Circuit Courts for said counties, shall have concurrent jurisdiction in all cases that may arise under the two preceding sections, and shall have full power to impose the said fines in the respective counties in which the offense may be committed; and the person so offending may be conveyed to either Baltimore or Harford county for trial and condemnation before a justice of the peace or the Circuit Court for either county.

156. Any party against whom any justice of the peace may render a judgment under the provisions of any of the sections of this sub-title of this article, at any time within ten days from the rendition of such judgment, may appease therefrom to the Circuit Court for the county wherein the same may have been rendered; but no execution shall be stayed
