

172. It shall be the duty of the police officers of Baltimore county to execute all orders of any of the said sanitary officers, so far as they may relate to the sanitary condition of said county.

173. In case of any epidemic or contagious or infectious diseases within the county, the County Commissioners shall be empowered to send one or all of said sanitary officers to the locality where said epidemic exists, for which services they shall receive no extra compensation.

174. The said sanitary officers are hereby made sub-registrars without additional compensation, and vaccine physicians for their respective districts, and it shall be their duty to vaccinate, free of charge, every child whose guardian or parents are too poor to pay for the service.

175. The County Commissioners are authorized to employ a sufficient number of men with horses and carts for the removal of garbage, ashes and all other offal in such thickly populated places as they shall consider necessary; and the said sanitary officers are authorized and empowered to have control of the persons so employed as removers of garbage, and to report any failure or delinquency on their part to the County Commissioners.

176. All residents of such places in Baltimore county as may be supplied with a force for the collection of garbage, ashes and other offal, shall be required to collect all offal accumulating in their premises into suitable receptacles, and put them in places convenient to the removers of garbage and other offal; and any resident who shall allow such offal to accumulate on his premises without so collecting and so placing it, shall be subject to a fine of not less than one dollar, nor more than five dollars, for every such offense, to be recovered as other fines and costs are recovered.

177. And any person who shall commit a nuisance by throwing any dead animal or offal of any kind into any highway, by-way or alley, or upon any vacant lot in any town or village in Baltimore county, or in the vicinity thereof, shall be subject to a fine of not less than one dollar, nor more than five dollars.

178. Every owner of a lot which is supplied with water from wells or springs, in any town or village having more than five hundred inhabitants in Baltimore county, shall be required to place in each and every privy, water closet or outhouse a water-tight box for the reception of urinary or fecal matter, under a penalty of five dollars for refusing or neglecting to supply the same, and such box shall be emptied by the occupant, and it
