

water of which may be used for cooking or drinking purposes, in any town or village, in Baltimore county having more than five hundred inhabitants, under a penalty of not less than ten dollars; and the sanitary officers shall immediately remove the same.

184. All fines and penalties that may be imposed under the provisions of the foregoing sections of this sub-title shall be collected by suit before a justice of the peace of Baltimore county in the manner prescribed by 175.

185. No person shall haul, cart, carry, drag or deposit any dead carcass or other carrion in Baltimore county, within one mile of the city of Baltimore, unless he shall bury, or cause the same to be buried at least two feet under ground, and so as effectually to prevent any offensive smell therefrom, under the penalty of twenty dollars for each offense, together with the expense of burying or removing the same.

186. Any person who shall remove or bury any dead carcass or offensive carrion, thrown out and deposited contrary to the provisions of the preceding section, shall recover, before any justice of the peace, against the person guilty of such offense, all expenses thereby incurred in burying and removing same.

187. Any person occupying any real property or chattels real in Baltimore county, either as tenant or owner thereof, or any person owning unoccupied real estate or chattels in said county, who shall knowingly allow any dead carcass of any domestic animals to be exposed upon said premises without burial for a longer period than twenty-four hours, shall, upon presentment and conviction thereof, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be liable to a fine of twenty dollars or imprisonment for not less than ten days for each offense, in the discretion of the court.

188. The County Commissioners of Baltimore County shall, on or before the first Wednesday in December, in the year nineteen hundred and three, and on or before such date every two years thereafter, appoint a fit person as warden of the jail of Baltimore county, who shall take charge of the prison and prisoners therein and have and exercise, during his continuance in office, the same powers, and be subject to the same penalties and forfeitures and be responsible for the escapes in the same manner and to the same extent as the present sheriff of said county and the sheriff of the several counties now are, and shall perform such other duties as shall be required of him by said County Commissioners.
