

names and residences of the witnesses for the prosecution endorsed thereon forthwith to the clerk of the said court; provided, the justice before whom the case is for trial shall inform the person charged of his right to a jury trial; and should such person waive a jury trial and demand a trial before such justice, then it shall be the duty of said justice to forthwith notify the State's Attorney for said county of the name of such person and the character of the charge against him, and said justice shall not proceed to try such case within a less period than seven days from the date of sending said notifications, unless he should sooner receive information from said State's Attorney also waiving a jury trial therein, in which event he may proceed to try such case within seven days from said notification; provided, however, that this section shall not apply to any justices of the peace for the twelfth election district except the station house justice for said district, which said justice, other than the station house justice, shall not exercise any criminal jurisdiction except as set forth in the next succeeding section of this article.

205. Whenever any justice of the peace appointed for the twelfth election district of Baltimore county, other than the justice selected as aforesaid to sit at the station house at Canton in said district, as aforesaid, shall issue a State writ for the arrest of any person, or shall issue any writ or summons against any person or corporation to recover any fine, penalty or forfeiture, under any law of this State, such writ or summons shall be made returnable before the justice of the peace selected by the Governor to sit at said station house in said twelfth election district, and shall not be made returnable before the justice of the peace issuing the same, unless he, the justice of the peace selected to sit at said station house as aforesaid; and whenever any person shall be arrested in the twelfth election district upon any criminal charge, or for the violation of any law of this State, it shall be the duty of the police officer or constable making such arrest, or other person in whose custody the said person so arrested may be, to take the person so arrested before the justice of the peace sitting at said Canton station house; and if such arrest is made without writ or warrant, or if such writ or warrant is made returnable before any other justice of the peace, whether of said twelfth district, or some other district, and the arrest is made in the twelfth election district as aforesaid, or on a writ or warrant issued by a justice appointed for said district, it shall be the duty of the said police officer, constable or other person having authority to make such arrest, to take the person so arrested to the station house at Canton in said twelfth election district; and the