

227. The said clerk in giving the notices required by section 231 of this sub-title, shall embrace in one notice all the names of all persons whose applications shall have been filed at the time of giving such notice, separating them only so far as to make such notice easily intelligible to the public, and if either of the days for the giving of such notice shall be a Sunday, then such notice shall be given upon the next succeeding day, or as soon thereafter as practicable, so as to secure two weekly insertions of such notice in a newspaper before the time fixed, for cause to be shown against the issuance of the license applied for.

228. The clerk of the court who received the said application, certificates and affidavit shall file and carefully preserve the same, and after giving the said notice, if no cause be shown to the contrary, or if cause be shown, and the said judge shall direct in writing the license to be issued, shall issue to such applicant or applicants the license applied for, upon receiving from the applicant or applicants the following sums or license fees, viz: If the license is for twelve months and to sell spirituous and fermented liquors by the drink or in quantities not more than a gallon, the sum of two hundred dollars, if the license is for twelve months and to sell spirituous and fermented liquors in quantities not less than a pint and not to be drunk on the premises, the said clerk shall require of the applicant under oath, to be by such clerk administered, as to the value of the stock of spirituous or fermented liquors he intended to keep on hand in the business he proposes to conduct under the license applied for, and if it shall appear from the statement then made under oath, that the value of the applicant's stock of spirituous or fermented liquors will not exceed one thousand dollars, the license fee shall be two hundred dollars, if more than one thousand dollars, and not exceeding two thousand dollars, the license fee shall be three hundred dollars, if more than two thousand dollars, the license fee shall be three hundred and fifty dollars.

229. If the license applied for shall be nine, six or three months, then the license fee shall be for three-fourths, one-half or one-fourth of the amounts severally specified for the twelve months licenses enumerated in the preceding section.

230. No person having a license under the provisions of this sub-title shall sell or give away any spirituous or fermented liquors on the Sabbath day, commonly called Sunday, or upon any day on which elections are now or may hereafter be held, nor shall he sell or give away any spirituous or fermented liquors to any minor, nor shall he knowingly sell or give away any spirituous or fermented liquors to any drunkard, nor shall
