

club or corporation for such license shall be made by the steward or any other officer of said club or corporation in substantial compliance with the provisions of section 228 of this sub-title, and notice of such application shall be published as required in section 225 of this sub-title, for case where such application is filed by any individual.

240. The steward or officer of such club or corporation, at the time he files an application for a license in substantial compliance with the provisions of section 222 of this sub-title, regulating the application of an individual for a license shall include in the sworn application for such license a list of the bona fide members of the club or corporation applying for a license, and no such license shall be granted unless such club or corporation shall own or regularly rent or lease a habitation or place of meeting in Baltimore county.

241. If any such club, association or corporation, or officer, or agent thereof shall sell, barter, give, or in any way furnish or dispense, intoxicating liquor or any admixture thereof to any person, whether a member thereof or not, without a license as herein provided, such officer or agent shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

242. If any person or any club, association or corporation or officer or agent thereof, without first obtaining a license as provided in this sub-title, shall give, barter, furnish or dispense any wine, ale, beer or intoxicating liquor to any person upon any grounds or premises in Baltimore county, to which ground or premises a price of admission is charged, as an inducement for paying such admission, such person so giving, bartering, furnishing or dispensing such wine, ale or beer or liquor, or any such agent or officer so doing, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined not more than one thousand dollars, or be imprisoned in jail or the House of Correction for not more than one year, or both fined and imprisoned, in the discretion of the court.

243. Any person, club or corporation desiring to obtain under the provisions of this sub-title a license for twelve months on the first day of May, eighteen hundred and ninety, shall not be required to file the application therefor on or before the first day of April, in the year eighteen hundred and ninety, as provided in section 222 of this sub-title, but may file the same at any time prior to the granting of the said license, and the clerk of the said Circuit Court shall grant the said license without publishing the notice required by section 225 of this sub-title.

244. Any holder of license to sell spirituous or fermented liquors at retail, by the drink or otherwise, may be permitted
