

to sell or assign said license to another person to be used at the same place or another place of business in said county; provided, the said purchaser or assignee or intended purchaser or assignee shall make due application therefor on the recommendation of ten reputable taxpayers, advertisement of same in newspapers, etc., as required in case of an original application for such license, and if no objections are interposed in the manner set forth in an original application, then the said clerk of the Circuit Court for Baltimore County shall endorse the transfer upon the license, and shall be entitled to receive a fee of fifty cents therefor, and the same shall then take effect; but should there be an objection filed to the transfer or assignment of said license, then the same proceedings shall be had before a judge of the Circuit Court for Baltimore County, as in case of objections to an original application, and the costs of the same to be taxed in the same manner.

245. Should any license, after the same has been granted, be destroyed by fire or otherwise, the clerk of the Circuit Court for Baltimore County, upon due application made to him by the licensee, shall issue a duplicate license to said licensee without further charge or cost, except fifty cents to said clerk.

246. In case the licensee dies, his widow, executor or administrator may carry on the business under the license until its expiration.

247. It shall not be lawful for any person, house, company, association or corporate body to sell, directly or indirectly, or to give away at his or its place of business, any spirituous, fermented or intoxicating liquors of any origin whatever, or alcoholic bitters, within an area or district of territory in Baltimore county, commencing at a stone planted on the north side of the Patapsco river and near to the bank thereof, opposite to and in a northerly direction from the Alberton cotton mills, in Howard county, and extending two miles in all directions in said Baltimore county from the said point of commencement.

248. If any person, house, company, association or body corporate shall sell, directly or indirectly, at any place, or give away at his or its place of business, any spirituous or fermented liquors or alcoholic bitters, or intoxicating drinks of any kind, within the limits of the said area or district in Baltimore county, he or it shall, on conviction thereof, forfeit and pay on the first conviction a fine of not less than fifty dollars, nor more than three hundred dollars and costs of prosecution, or instead of such fine, be imprisoned in the county jail for thirty days, or both, in the discretion of the court; and on the second and every subsequent conviction not less than one hundred dollars,
