

at Halethorpe, in the Thirteenth Election District of Baltimore county, on which is known as Woodside avenue therein, and that any person selling any spirituous or fermented liquors or lager beer, or any kind of intoxicating drinks, whether of original manufacture or of a mixed character, within the above described limits, shall, on conviction, be subject to the same fines and punishments now provided by the Code of General Laws of Maryland for selling spirituous or fermented liquors without a license; provided, however, that this section shall not apply to any part of said district which lies south of the present tracks of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company.

272. Any person keeping any horse, mare, gelding, mule or horned cattle or vehicle at livery in Baltimore county, under his care, may retain the same in his custody until all charges for so keeping shall be paid by the owner.

273. Any person keeping any horse, mare, gelding, mule or horned cattle, or vehicle, at livery in said county, may state an account for keeping said horse, mare, gelding or mule or horned cattle, or vehicle, and prove the same before any justice of the peace for said county; and said justice being satisfied by proof of demand, refusal or neglect to pay on the part of the owner, shall thereupon issue his warrant authorizing the sale of such horse, mare, gelding, mule, horned cattle or vehicle.

274. And upon receiving such warrant, the said keeper may sell such horse, mare, gelding, mule, horned cattle or vehicle, at public auction, at some public place in said county, after giving ten days' notice in one paper in Baltimore county, and hand-bills set up in the vicinity of such sale, of the time, place and manner of sale, and after deducting the amount due for keeping and all expenses of said sale, shall pay the surplus, if any, to the owner.

275. It shall not be lawful for any stock of any kind to go at large and without attendants within the distance of five miles from the limits of Baltimore city.

276. It shall not be lawful for stock of any kind to go at large in Lutherville, nor within circuit of one mile, taking the Lutheran Church in said village as the central point.

277. It shall not be lawful for stock of any kind to go at large in Reisterstown, nor within a circuit of one mile, taking the sixteen mile stone, located in Reisterstown, as a central point.

278. It shall not be lawful for stock of any kind to go at large in Glyndon, nor within a circuit of one mile, taking the brick (county) schoolhouse in Glyndon as the central point.
