

at any crossing intersecting a point mentioned or designated in section 322 to be guarded and provided as required by said section 322 so far above or below the grade of such crossing, intersection or point designated, as not to endanger the safety of any passenger, horseman or vehicle passing over or under said railroad track, then it shall be relieved from compliance with the terms and provisions of said section 322 at the place so bridged or tunneled as aforesaid; the construction of any bridge or tunnel to be subject to the approval of the Highway Commission.

325. All railroad companies now in existence or hereafter to be created shall have authority to raise or lower any public road, avenue, street or other highways in said county, in such manner as to enable said company to pass such road, avenue, street or highway under or over such railroad, but such work of raising or depression shall be done in a manner satisfactory to the Highways Commission.

326. The Northern Central Railway Company be and it is hereby required to erect a station and to stop all local passenger trains thereat at the place where said Northern Central Railway crosses the Falls road in Baltimore county.

327. It shall not be lawful for any person or persons or corporation, whose business is that of a common carrier, to stop its or their vehicles, cars or engines upon any of the road-beds or crossings of any of the public roads in Baltimore county, over or across which the said vehicles, cars or engines may run for a longer period of time than is necessary to take on or let off its or their passengers or freight there waiting, not exceeding, at any one time, a period of fifteen minutes.

328. Any person or persons or corporation, its officers or agents, violating the provisions of the preceding section shall be liable to a fine of not less than twenty dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, to be recovered before any justice of the peace in Baltimore county, subject, however, to the right of appeal to the Circuit Court for Baltimore County.

328A. It shall not be lawful for any person or corporation to lay any railway tracks upon Old York road from its intersection with the York turnpike to Willow avenue, in the city and county of Baltimore, without the consent of the General Assembly of Maryland; provided, that this Act shall not restrict in any way, the right of any passenger railway now incorporated or that may hereafter be incorporated, to cross said Old York road, where such railway company shall be