

Commission or given them by the Roads Engineer of the county. They shall also perform such other duties with respect to the public roads in their respective districts, as the Highways Commission may, by its regulations or orders, prescribe. No road supervisor shall have any pecuniary interest in any contract, or shall furnish any team for any road work in the county, except in such cases as the Highways Commission shall expressly authorize in advance by an order duly entered on its records. Except as aforesaid, every road supervisor, when presenting for payment any bill for the hire of horses and carts or wagons, shall append thereto an affidavit that he is not interested, directly or indirectly, in the payment of the amounts charged for such hire of horses and carts or wagons, or for any material furnished. Said road supervisors shall keep books, showing in detail the expenditures made by them or under their supervision, on each road in their respective districts, including the cost of all material used on the roads and the labor expended, and shall furnish on or before the tenth of each month, to the Baltimore County Roads Engineer, a copy of such itemized statement of their expenditures for the month just passed; said Engineer shall examine said bills, and if he finds the same correct, and the items properly allowable, shall mark the same approved and deliver the same to the Highways Commission for its further approval and payment, as hereinafter provided. On or before the tenth day of December in each and every year, said road supervisors shall submit to the Baltimore County Roads Engineer a written report showing the conditions of the roads in their respective districts, the improvements that have been made during the preceding year, and the amounts and kinds of material used on each road, with a detailed statement of its cost and the amount and cost of hard material and labor on each road. Each road supervisor shall be entitled to receive as compensation for the duties performed by him under this sub-title an amount equal to ten per cent. of the total amount of the district allotted, as hereinafter provided, to his particular district, exclusive of any allowances made to such district from the general or other funds expended in such district; provided, that in those districts where compensation on such basis would amount to less than two hundred and fifty dollars, they shall be allowed an annual salary of two hundred and fifty dollars, and that in those cases where compensation on such basis would amount to more than one thousand dollars, they shall be allowed an annual salary of one thousand dollars, said allowance and salaries to be received by them in lieu of all other compensation for the duties performed by them under this sub-title. Such compensation shall be paid in monthly or quarterly in-
