

SEC. 61. The petition for forfeiture hereinabove mentioned shall be filed in the Circuit Court for the county or in the Superior Court of Baltimore City, according to the location of the principal office of the corporation. And from any final judgment or determination of the court in proceedings hereunder, either party may appeal to the Court of Appeals as provided by Sections 68 and 69 of Article 5 of the Code of 1904.

Suit and Process Against Domestic Corporations.

SEC. 62. Process issued by any court or justice of the peace of this State against any corporation thereof may be served on any president, director, manager, or other officer; and if none reside in this State, such corporation may be proceeded against by attachment as a non-resident, or such process may be served on any agent, or other person in the service of the corporation; provided, that in all cases mentioned in this section, the officer serving process shall leave a copy thereof with the person upon whom it is served. Every corporation of this State may be sued in any county or in the city of Baltimore, as the case may be, where its principal office is located, or where it regularly transacts business or exercises its franchises, or in any local action, where the subject matter thereof lies; and process against such corporation may be served as is hereinabove provided, and may be directed to the sheriff of any county or of the city of Baltimore, returnable to the clerk of the court out of which same issued. And whenever any corporation of this State has become surety on any bond required by law to be filed in any court thereof or with any register of wills, public board or official—suit against such corporation on such bond may be brought in the city or county where the same is filed.

SEC. 63. It shall be sufficient in any suit, pleading or process, either at law or in equity or before a justice of the peace against any corporation, to describe it by the name or title by which it is commonly known or by or under which its business is transacted.

Consolidation of Corporations Having No Capital Stock.

SEC. 64. Any educational, charitable or other corporation formed under the provisions of this article and having no capital stock, or any corporation formed for the operation and maintenance of educational, moral, scientific, literary, dramatic, social, benevolent or beneficial societies of any description, or formed for any religious object or for maintaining fire engine and hose companies, or uniformed volunteer com-
