

whenever and wherever they may, in their judgment, deem it necessary.

371. The said night schools, wherever established, shall be held in the same school houses that are now used or shall be used for the day schools of Baltimore county, and the same by-laws and regulations governing the said day schools shall also apply to said night schools as far as practicable.

372. The expense of conducting said night schools shall be defrayed in the same manner as that of the day schools of said county.

373. The Board of County School Commissioners of Baltimore county shall make payment of the annual salaries of the public school teachers of said county in eight instalments; two of said instalments or payments to be made each term, one at or near the middle thereof and the other when the quarterly report, properly filled up and completed, shall be returned.

374. The County Commissioners of said county shall pay over to the treasurer of the said Board of County School Commissioners of Baltimore county, upon the order of the said board, the taxes levied and collected for school purposes in said county, at such times and in such amount as shall be necessary; provided, the collections from the school levy shall be sufficient for said purpose, and when there are not sufficient funds on hand from the school levy the said Commissioners, at their discretion, are authorized to advance a sufficient sum to supply such deficiency from any other funds not immediately demandable for other county purposes.

375. The Board of County School Commissioners of Baltimore county may establish kindergarten schools in said county, wherever and whenever they may in their judgment deem it necessary, and subject to such regulations as they may establish, the expense of conducting such kindergarten schools to be defrayed in the same manner as the other public schools of said county.

376. The County Commissioners shall make the annual levy for the support of the public schools, in two specific sums, of which one shall be apportioned and used for the current expenses of the public schools, and the other for the building of new school houses, and for no other purpose whatever.

377. The sheriff of Baltimore county shall receive an annual salary of three thousand dollars, to be paid to him in monthly instalments of two hundred and fifty dollars by the County Commissioners of Baltimore county; and he shall be allowed the sum of four thousand dollars annually, to be paid to him by