

the said County Commissioners in monthly instalments for the expenses of his office, including clerk and the necessary deputies to assist him in the discharge of his duties, and he shall be allowed the further sum of three hundred dollars annually for transferring prisoners to and from penal institutions and places of confinement in the State of Maryland. He shall collect all fees and charges to which he may be entitled by law, and exercise all powers conferred upon him by law to enforce the collection of the same, and shall at the end of each month during his term of office make a sworn report of the same to the County Commissioners of Baltimore county in such form as said Commissioners may direct, and pay over the same to the Treasurer of Baltimore county upon the order of said Commissioners, and whenever any Sheriff shall retire from office, leaving uncollected any costs, fees and charges lawfully payable to him, his successor shall collect and pay over the same, and it shall be the duty of the Sheriff to keep in his office in such books as may be required an official record of the fees and charges to be collected by him, and those which shall have been collected and such books shall remain in his office after the expiration of his term for the use of his successor.

378. In all criminal cases which may be removed from the Criminal Court of Baltimore to the Circuit Court for Baltimore county and tried, it may be lawful for the judge of said Circuit Court to allow to the State's Attorney for Baltimore county, in addition to the sum allowed by law, such compensation, not exceeding the sum of thirty dollars for any one case, as the said judge may deem just and proper, to be levied and collected from the city of Baltimore.

379. All the offenses committed within the limits of Baltimore county, except treason, misprison of treason, arson, burglary, larceny, manslaughter, mayhem, murder, rape, robbery, sodomy, and all other felonies, may be prosecuted, upon order of the Circuit Court for Baltimore county on information, on behalf of the State filed by the State's Attorney for said county in said county.

380. The clerk of said court shall, upon order of the State's Attorney for said county, issue summons for witnesses to appear at the time and place to be designated in said order, and the said court shall have the same power as provided by section seven and eight of article thirty-five of the Code of Public General Laws of this State to secure and compel the attendance and testimony of said witnesses, and all witnesses so summoned and appearing and taking the oath hereinafter provided shall receive the same compensation allowed to witnesses summoned and attending before the grand inquest for said county.