

LAWS OF MARYLAND

MARYLAND, Sct:

At a session of the General Assembly of Maryland, begun and held in the City of Annapolis, on the first day of January, 1908, His Excellency, AUSTIN L. CROTHERS, being Governor, the following laws were enacted, to wit:

ARTICLE IX.

ATTACHMENTS.

CHAPTER 665.

AN ACT to repeal Section 33 of Article 9 of the Code of Public General Laws of the State of Maryland, title "Attachments," sub-title "Attachments of Wages or Hire," so far as said section applies to Allegany county, and re-enact said section with amendments, said section as re-enacted to apply to Allegany county only.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 33 of Article 9 of the Code of Public General Laws, title "Attachments," sub-title "Attachments of Wages or Hire," is hereby repealed so far, and so far only, as said section applies to Allegany county, and the same is hereby re-enacted so as to apply in its amended form to Allegany county, and to be known as Section 186A of Article Number 1 of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Allegany County," sub-title "Exemption of Wages on Attachment," said section as re-enacted to be and read as follows:

SEC. 186A. No attachment of the wages or hire of any laborer or employe, in the hands of the employer, whether private individuals or bodies corporate, shall affect any salary or wages of the debtor which are not actually due at the date of the attachment; and ninety per cent. of such wages or hire due to any laborer or employe by any employer or corporation shall always be exempt from attachment by any process whatever, provided such exemption shall not exceed one hundred dollars.

Approved April 15, 1908.
