

418. In order to prevent sand, clay or gravel from wasting upon any county roads of the Thirteenth Election District of Baltimore county, all carts and wagons hauling clay, sand or gravel shall have tight bottoms, fronts, side boards and tail boards, and that there shall always be a clear space of at least one inch between the top of the sand, clay or gravel, as the case may be, and the top of the front board, side board and tail board of all such carts and wagons hauling sand, clay or gravel, and in no event shall the tail board be lower than the side board.

419. Each and every violation of any provision of either of the next two preceding sections shall be a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of ten dollars and costs, to be imposed upon the offender by any justice of the peace of the State of Maryland, in and for Baltimore county, to be collected as other fines are collected, one-half of said fines to go to the informer, and the balance thereof to the Highways Commission of Baltimore county, to be applied by them to the repair of the county roads of said district.

420. It shall not be lawful for any person to allow his stock of any kind, including horses, mules, horned cattle and swine, or geese, to go at large unattended in Towson, nor within a circuit of one mile and a half around said village, taking the corner of Chesapeake avenue and the Baltimore and Yorktown turnpike, as the central point.

421. Any person who may find any horse, mule, horned cattle, swine or geese going at large and unattended by a keeper, within the limits prescribed in the preceding section, may impound the same, or report the fact to some constable or deputy sheriff, who shall impound same, under the penalty of two dollars for each head of stock or lot of geese he may neglect to impound, upon information given to him; and the constable or other person impounding any stock or geese shall, within twenty-four hours after impounding, post up in at least three public places within the limits above prescribed, a written or printed description of the stock, swine or geese impounded, which written description shall contain a notice that if the owner of the same does not claim them within five days from the date of posting such notice, the stock or geese impounded will be sold to pay costs of impounding and damages.

422. If the owner of any stock or geese impounded shall claim the same before a sale thereof, such owner shall pay to the person impounding one dollar for each horse, mule, hog, or head of cattle, and each lot of geese containing two or
