

424. No person or resident conducting business in Baltimore county shall sell any goods or merchandise whatever in Baltimore county unless he shall first take out the license now prescribed by law, and no person not residing in Baltimore, Carroll, Howard, Anne Arundel and Harford counties and not paying said license, whether a dealer, merchant, storekeeper, huckster, or trader, selling or offering for sale any merchandise, except fish, fruits and vegetables, except to dealers, shall be permitted to sell any goods or merchandise from wagons in said county, without having first obtained a license therefor from the clerk of the Circuit Court for Baltimore county, and having paid therefor the sum of fifty dollars to the clerk of the said court, said license being for the term of one year, from May the first of each and every year and said license fee to go to the Treasurer of Baltimore county for the improvement of the public roads of said county.

425. Any person selling from wagons, as referred to in the foregoing section, or soliciting or drumming for sale of any of the articles referred to in said section, without having previously obtained said license, shall be liable to a fine of fifty dollars for each and every violation of said section for which he shall be convicted, the one-half of said fine to go to the informer, and the other half to the county, as in the case of other fines and forfeitures; provided that no grower or producer of any goods or merchandise referred to and included in the preceding section shall be required to take out said license.

426. Any person who shall trespass upon the lands of another within the limits of Baltimore county shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof before a justice of the peace of said county, shall be fined not less than five nor more than twenty dollars; provided, that the owner or possessor of the land trespassed upon shall, by conspicuous posters placed upon said land prior to said trespass, have warned all persons from entering upon said lands without his permission.

427. The Board of County Commissioners shall annually levy upon the assessable property of each one hundred dollars of the whole assessable property of Tuxedo Park, Baltimore county, at the time of making the county levy, a sum of money not exceeding the sum of twenty cents, for use and purpose of bettering the roads, sidewalks, sanitary measures, drainage and other improvements in said Tuxedo Park, which shall be collected as other county taxes are collected.
