

point at a greater distance than one hundred yards from the natural shore from which the same may be extended, every such person shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction of having violated this section shall pay a fine of not less than fifty dollars nor more than two hundred dollars for each and every offense, and shall be subject to the same penalty once in every week so long as the same is allowed to remain.

443. Any person upon whom any of the fines provided for by the four preceding sections shall be imposed, shall, in appointment, shall continue to hold, exercise and discharge every case, in default of payment of the same, be committed to jail for not less than thirty days nor more than six months, or until said fine and all costs are paid; and all and every sink-boat, sneak-boat, float, decoy, duck gun of any kind, ammunition and apparatus of every kind whatsoever for use in shooting at or killing wild ducks or other water fowl found to have been in possession of such person at the time of violating any of the provisions of said sections, or in his possession at the time of his arrest, shall be forfeited, condemned and sold as hereinafter provided.

444. Any sheriff, constable or commissioned militia officer who shall be satisfied, either upon his own view or from information received from any other person whatever, on oath or not, that any person has violated any of the provisions of said sections, shall be authorized and empowered to arrest and take into custody such person so offending, and to seize and take into his custody any and all the articles hereinbefore enumerated, found to have been or to be in the possession of such person.

445. Any person resisting an officer so authorized to make arrests and seizures, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall pay a fine of not less than fifty dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail for not less than one month nor more than sixty days, or both fined and imprisoned within the limits herein prescribed.

446. The justices of the peace of Baltimore and Harford counties, and Circuit Court, respectively, for said counties, shall have concurrent jurisdiction in all cases that may arise under the provisions of any of the sections of this sub-title of this article, and all of them shall have full power, authority and jurisdiction to impose fines, order the imprisonment and pass the judgment of condemnation and sale hereby provided in the respective counties in which the offense may be com-
