

and regulations in whole or in part, in which event the same shall be valid and effective when recorded and published as aforesaid. And the said County Commissioners, in addition to the remedies provided for by this Act, shall have the right to enforce said regulations and the provisions of this Act, and prevent infractions thereof by an application to the Circuit Court for Baltimore county, in equity, for an injunction, and a breach or threatened breach or violation of this Act, or of said regulations shall be deemed sufficient cause in itself for the issuance of such injunction when applied for, and no further cause need be alleged or shown.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the respective inspector of buildings appointed as aforesaid for the said election districts shall respectively have the supervision of the construction of all buildings erected in said respective election districts for which they are appointed, and shall see that the rules and regulations of the County Commissioners relating to the construction of said buildings shall be complied with, and they shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the County Commissioners aforesaid not inconsistent with this Act. Their compensation shall consist of the fees allowed them for their services in issuing permits for the erection of buildings; each of said inspectors of buildings shall be subject to removal at any time in the discretion of the County Commissioners; provided, that any person or persons violating any of the rules and regulations so promulgated by the County Commissioners under the provisions of this Act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof in the Circuit Court for Baltimore county shall be fined not more than one hundred dollars.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of each of said inspectors of buildings to visit and inspect all theatres, hotels, public halls, churches, school houses and buildings used for public assemblages and all manufactories employing twenty-five or more persons, now erected, or that may be hereinafter erected in said respective election districts, for which they shall be appointed, for the purpose of ascertaining if said buildings have the proper means of exit in case of fire or panic, and if, on examination, any of the said inspectors of buildings shall determine that said buildings as herein enumerated have not the proper means of exit for the purposes herein prescribed, then it shall be the duty of such inspector of buildings to notify, in writing, the said owners, trustees or lessees of said buildings as herein enumerated, to so improve the same as to provide the proper means of exit in case of fire or panic as in the judgment of said inspector of buildings, he may deem
